DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-24 remain pending.

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

2. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 9/15/10 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. The claim is rejected under to 35 U.S.C. § 112, 2nd paragraph because claims 7-12 and 19-24 recites an apparatus whose claim elements are referred to as "units". This falls into the means plus function category, where they have not clearly identified and/or linked each claimed unit to a particular structure in the specification. Specifically, the "encrypted-data-packet forming unit", "data-sequence reproducing unit", the "data detecting unit", and the "data selecting unit" are not disclosed in the specification.

MPEP states where means plus function language is used to define the characteristics of a machine or manufacture invention, such language must be interpreted to read on only the structures or materials disclosed in the specification and "equivalents thereof" that correspond to the recited function. Two en banc decisions of the Federal Circuit have made clear that the USPTO is to interpret means plus function language according to 35 U.S.C. § 112, sixth paragraph. In re Donaldson, 16 F.3d 1189, 1193, 29 USPQ2d 1845, 1848 (Fed. Cir.1994) (en banc); In re Alappat, 33 F.3d 1526, 1540, 31 USPQ2d 1545, 1554 (Fed.Cir. 1994) (en banc).

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-6 and 13-18 are allowed over art.

Claims 7-12 and 19-24 would be allowable if these claims can overcome the 35 U.S.C. § 112, sixth paragraph rejection as discussed above.
